

response[rɪˈspɒns] *n*1. ответresponse time - вчт. время ответа, время реакции; время отклика

he made no response - он ничего не ответил

in response to your inquiry - в ответ на ваш запрос

2. 1) реакция; реагирование

biological response - биологическая реакция

2) отклик

ready response - живой отклик

responses to the president's message - (газетные) отклики на послание президента to act in response to the call of duty - действовать из чувства долга

his appeal met with a generous response - его обращение встретило/нашло/ широкий отклик

3) ответное чувство

his love met with no response - его любовь осталась без ответа

4) спец. характеристика, отклик (системы на внешнее воздействие)3. 1) тех. повиновение управлению2) чувствительность (прибора или реакции)response to fertilizer - с.-х. отзывчивость на удобрение4. *церк.*1) ответствие (хора и т. п.)2) = responsory5. муз. ответ, спутник (фуги)response

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

re-sponse AW [response responses] BrE [rɪˈspɒns] ^ɹ NAmE [rɪˈspɑːns] ^ɹ noun1. countable, uncountable a spoken or written answer

• She made no response.

• ~ to sb/sth In response to your enquiry...

• I received an encouraging response to my advertisement

2. countable, uncountable a reaction to sth that has happened or been said

• The news provoked an angry response.

• a positive response

• I knocked on the door but there was no response.

• ~ (to sb/sth) The product was developed in response to customer demand.

• There has been little response to our appeal for funds.

• We sent out over 1 000 letters but the response rate has been low (= few people replied) .3. countable, usually plural ~ (to sb/sth) a part of a church service that the people sing or speak as an answer to the part that the priest sings or speaksWord Origin:Middle English: from Old French respons or Latin responsum 'something offered in return', neuter past participle of respondere, from re- 'again' + spondere 'to pledge' .Thesaurus:response noun1. C, U

• Customers should receive a response within 10 days.

answer • • reply • • acknowledgement • |written retort •a/an response/answer/reply/retort to sb/stha/an response/answer/reply/acknowledgement from sbin response/answer/reply to sb/sthget/receive a/an response/answer/reply/acknowledgementmake no response/answer/replyResponse, answer or reply? Response is slightly more formal than answer and reply . It is used especially in written or business English.2. C, U

• The product was developed in response to customer demand.

reaction • • reception • • welcome • • feedback •(a) response/reaction/reception/welcome/feedback from sba response/reaction/reception/welcome to sb(a) positive/favourable response/reaction/reception/feedback(an) immediate response/reaction/welcome/feedbackResponse or reaction? Your response to sth is what you decide to do or say about it; your reaction is often less considered or is simply the feeling that sth produces in you

• My immediate reaction to the news was one of shock.

Example Bank:

• Due to lack of response the event has been cancelled.

- Due to lack of response we have had to cancel the event
- Have you had any responses to the advertisement yet?
- He has posted his response on the organization's website.
- He was not getting the desired response from the audience.
- His comments drew an angry response from the crowd.
- In response, she stormed out of the room.
- My initial response was one of anger.
- That's the only logical response.
- The World Bank has postponed an official response to the report.
- The immune system springs into action to mount a response against the virus.
- The response from local businesses has been muted.
- These are just a few of the possible responses to this question.
- These images are likely to evoke a strong response in the viewer.
- This is a normal response to feeling abandoned.
- We sent out over 100 letters but the response rate was low.
- We'll coordinate emergency responses from now on.
- What was their response to the question?
- his delayed response to the event
- incorrect responses in a multiple choice test
- my knee-jerk response to the story
- the immune response to viral infections
- 95% of customers can expect a response to their enquiries within 10 days.
- He quoted the words of another famous leader in response to the journalist's question.
- I am grateful for the Minister's sympathetic response to my point.

response

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

re [sponse S1 W1 AC /rɪˈspɒns $ rɪˈspɑːns BrE ˈ AmE ˈ noun

[Word Family: noun: ↑respondent, ↑response, ↑responsiveness; verb: ↑respond; adverb: ↑responsively; adjective: ↑responsive ≠ ↑unresponsive]

1. [uncountable and countable] something that is done as a reaction to something that has happened or been said

response to

the public's response to our appeal for help

in response to something

The law was passed in response to public pressure.

positive/favourable/negative etc response

The exhibition has received a positive response from visitors.

an emotional/angry response

The decision provoked an angry response from residents.

His immediate response was one of disbelief.

Emmett's new exhibition has met with a favourable response from critics.

2. [countable] something that is said or written as a reply

response to

'Sure, why not?' was his response to all of Billie's suggestions.

Carl made no response, and carried on with his meal.

in response (to something)

I am writing in response to your letter of June 12.

Ronni merely groaned in response.

⇒ ↑rapid-response

• • •

COLLOCATIONS

adjectives

- a positive/favourable response The product met with a highly positive response from the public.
- a negative response In Russia, the planned expansion provoked a negative response.
- an enthusiastic response There has been an enthusiastic response to the introduction of soccer coaching for girls.
- an angry response His comments sparked an angry response from opposition politicians.
- a good/encouraging response (=when people like something or show interest) We've had a good response from the public.
- sb's immediate response When he was sentenced, his immediate response was to appeal.
- a direct response Her resignation was in direct response to the party's poor results in the local elections.
- an appropriate response She laughed, which didn't really seem an appropriate response.
- a strong response The photograph provoked a strong response from many people.
- an emotional response When she died, the emotional response was extraordinary.

verbs

- get a positive etc response She got an enthusiastic response to her suggestion.
- receive a positive etc response (=get it) The proposal has received a positive response from most left-wing voters.
- meet with a positive etc response (=get it) The change met with a mixed response from employees.
- provoke a response The report provoked a strong response from a number of senior politicians.
- draw/bring a response from somebody The appeal for aid brought a big response from the West.

response12500 670^{MCW}15000 657^{COCA}RANGE: 2k RESPONSE ⁷¹⁵⁶¹response ⁴⁸⁹⁷⁰responses ¹⁸²⁶³responsive ²⁹⁴⁵responsiveness ⁹²⁷unresponsive ⁴⁵⁶

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

22658 995⁴⁰⁷⁵¹ *nn1*6562 4793⁸¹³⁹ *ii32*62 85285⁸⁰ nnu