

talented['tæləntɪd] a

талантливый одарённый

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

talented*tal·ent·ed ['tæləntɪd] BrE ['tæləntɪd] NAme ['tæləntɪd] adjective

having a natural ability to do sth well

- a talented player

Example Bank:

- Some of these young musicians are hugely talented.
- a precociously talented youngster
- an extraordinarily talented designer
- She's a hugely talented singer.
- The kids at this school are all exceptionally talented in some way.
- We're looking for talented young designers to join our team.

talented

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

tal·ent·ed /'tæləntəd, 'tæləntɪd/ BrE AmE *adjective*having a natural ability to do something well ⇒ gifted:

- a talented actor

• • •

THESAURUS

- skilful British English, skillful American English good at doing something, especially something that needs special ability or training: a skilful player | the artist's skillful use of color | Success in business depends on skilful management.
- good at something able to do something well: Maria is extremely good at her job. | He was very good at swimming. | I'm not very good at Maths.
- skilled having a lot of training and experience, and able to do a job well: There is a demand for carpenters and other skilled craftsmen. | The country needs highly skilled foreign workers. | Our advisors are skilled at dealing with financial problems.
- talented having a natural ability to do something well: a talented artist | She's an exceptionally talented student.
- gifted having a great natural ability, which few people have: a gifted writer | a gifted player | a special school for gifted children

talented

Freakuency Pack

12500 6801<sup>MCW</sup>15000 1593<sup>COCA</sup>RANGE: 3k TALENT <sup>25235</sup>talent <sup>14218</sup>talented <sup>6855</sup>untalented <sup>65</sup>talents <sup>4097</sup>

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

4914 5503<sup>6855</sup> jj