

tradesman[ˈtreɪdz|mən] n (pl -men [-{ˈtreɪdz}mən])

1. торговец лавочник; купец
2. амер., дуал. ремесленник, мастеровой

tradesman

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

trades·man [tradesman tradesmen] BrE [ˈtreɪdzmən] ^ˈ NAmE [ˈtreɪdzmən] ^ˈnoun (pl. trades·men BrE [ˈtreɪdzmən] ^ˈ ; NAmE [ˈtreɪdzmən] ^ˈ)

1. a person whose job involves going to houses to sell or deliver goods
 2. (especially BrE) a person who sells goods, especially in a shop/store
- Syn: †shopkeeper
3. (especially NAmE) a skilled person, especially one who makes things by hand

Example Bank:

- All deliveries should be made to the tradesmen's entrance.
- He got into trouble for seducing the daughter of a respectable tradesman.
- This is a job for a skilled tradesman.
- The Market Hall attracted tradesmen and stall holders from the surrounding district.

tradesman

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

trades·man /ˈtreɪdzmən/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ noun (plural tradesmen /-mən/) [countable]

1. British English someone who buys and sells goods or services, especially in a shop
2. especially American English someone who works at a job or †trade that involves skill with your hands
3. British English someone who goes to people's houses to sell or deliver goods

tradesman

Freakuency Pack

12500 7039^{MCW}15000 13617^{COCA}RANGE: 5k TRADESMAN ²⁶²tradesman ⁶⁵tradesmen ¹⁹⁷

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

⁵⁸94909⁶⁵ nn1