

suitcase

[ˈs(j)uːtkeɪs] n
 небольшой плоский чемодан

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

suitcase

suit·case [suitcase suitcases] BrE [ˈsuːtkeɪs] BrE [ˈsjuːtkeɪs] NAmE [ˈsuːtkeɪs] (also case) noun

a case with flat sides and a handle, used for carrying clothes, etc. when you are travelling

- to pack/unpack a suitcase

See also: ↑case

Example Bank:

- He got fed up of living out of a suitcase and left his job as a sales rep.
- He stuffed a few clothes in a suitcase and left.
- His only possession was a battered old suitcase of clothes.
- She snapped her suitcase shut and stuck on a label.
- The money was smuggled out in a false-bottomed suitcase.
- The suitcase was full of drugs.
- The suitcase was too heavy to lift.
- We had to lug our suitcases around for a week.
- travellers humping suitcases about
- He was carrying a battered leather suitcase.
- I threw a few clothes into a suitcase and left.
- I unpacked the suitcases.
- I've bought a suitcase with wheels.
- She checked in her suitcase and went for a coffee.
- She had been living out of a suitcase for weeks.
- The customs officer told him to open his suitcase.
- The suitcases were too heavy for her to carry.
- We had to carry our suitcases up three flights of stairs.

suitcase

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

suit·case /ˈsuːtkeɪs/sjuːtkeɪs BrE AmE noun [countable]

a large case with a handle, used for carrying clothes and possessions when you travel

suitcase

Freakuency Pack

12500 7075<sup>MCW</sup>
 15000 4191<sup>COCA</sup>
 RANGE: 4k SUITCASE 4477
 suitcase 3321
 suitcases 1156
 COCA 500k Unlemmatized
 1687 9481<sup>3321</sup> nn1