Synonyms:

comment

note • remark • observe

These words all mean to say or write a fact or opinion.

comment • to express an opinion or give facts about sth: ▫ He refused to comment until after the trial.

note • (rather formal) to mention sth because it is important or interesting: ▫ He noted in passing that the company's record on safety issues was not good.

remark • to say or write what you have noticed about a situation: ▫ Critics remarked that the play was not original.

observe • (formal) to say or write what you have noticed about a situation: ▫ She observed that it was getting late.

comment, remark or observe?

If you comment on sth you say sth about it; if you remark on sth or observe sth, you say sth about it that you have noticed: there is often not much difference between the three. However, while you can refuse to comment (without on), you cannot 'refuse to remark' or 'refuse to observe' (without on): He refused to remark/observe until after the trial.

to comment/note/remark/observe that...

to comment on/note/remark/observe how...
