attitude Apresyan (En-Ru)

['ætıtju:d] n

1. позиция, отношение

friendly [impartial] attitude towards smb. - дружеское [беспристрастное] отношение к кому-л.

to adopt an intransigent attitude oversmth. - занять непреклонную позицию по отношению к чему-л.

attitude of mind - склад ума

what's your attitude towards this question? - как вы относитесь к этому вопросу?

2. 1) положение, поза, осанка

hesitating [melancholy] attitude - нерешительная [задумчивая] поза attitude of pride [arrogance] - гордая [надменная] поза attitude of admiration [despair] - поза, выражающая восхищение [отчаяние]

to assume /to adopt/ the attitude of a boxer ready to fight - принять стойку боксёра, приготовившегося к бою

- 2) иск. поза (в изобразительном искусстве)
- 3) аттитюд (в классическом балете)
- 3. спец. (пространное) положение
- 4. психол. социальная установка
- 5. геол. залегание

he is always striking a pious attitude - он всегда старается выставить напоказ свою набожность

attitude

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

- 1. countable ~ (to/towards sb/sth) the way that you think and feel about sb/sth; the way that you behave towards sb/sth that shows how you think and feel
 - · changes in public attitudes to marriage
 - the government's attitude towards single parents
 - to have a good/bad/positive/negative attitude towards sb/sth
 - · Youth is simply an attitude of mind .
 - If you want to pass your exams you'd better change your attitude!
 - You're taking a pretty selfish attitude over this, aren't you?
 - A lot of drivers have a serious attitude problem (= they do not behave in a way that is acceptable to other people).
- 2. uncountable confident, sometimes aggressive behaviourthat shows you do not care about other people's opinions and that you want to do things in an individual way
 - · a band with attitude
 - You'd better get rid of that attitude and shape up, young man.
- 3. countable (formal) a position of the body
 - Her hands were folded in an attitude of prayer.

see strike a pose/an attitude at strike v.

Word Origin:

late 17th cent. (denoting the placing or posture of a figure in art): from French, from Italian attitudine 'fitness, posture', from late Latin aptitudo, from aptus 'fit'.

Thesaurus:

attitude noun C

What is your attitude towards the job as a whole?

view • point of view • stance • position • stand • perspective • outlook • line • angle • opinion • feeling • a personal attitude/view/point of view/stance/position/perspective/angle/opinion/feeling a positive/negative attitude/view/point of view/stance/perspective/outlook/angle/opinion/feeling take a/an attitude/view/point of view/stance/position/stand/perspective/line change your attitude/view/point of view/stance/position/perspective/outlook/opinion

Example Bank:

- At school he was thought to have an attitude problem.
- Changing conditions require an attitude adjustment on the part of business.
- Don't give me any attitude!
- He displayed a condescending attitude towards/toward his co-workers.
- I try to have a healthy, positive attitude to life.
- Newspapers reflect social attitudes.
- She seems to have the right attitude for the job.
- · She shares his somewhat cavalier attitude to the law.
- Sometimes it's essential for doctors to cultivate a detached attitude.
- The experience changed his attitude to religion.
- The general attitude of the public is sympathetic.
- The government has taken a positive attitude to this problem.
- The policy reflects a caring attitude towards/toward employees.
- The teachers seem to have a very relaxed attitude to discipline.
- There has been a marked change in attitude towards the European single currency.
- This sort of attitude exists among certain groups of people.

- Youth is simply an attitude of mind.
- · a rock band with attitude
- · an attitude of confidence and trust
- · changing attitudes about death
- · efforts to foster positive attitudes to learning
- · Her attitude to her parents has always been somewhat negative.
- His general attitude of hostility did not impress the jury.
- I like her cheerfulness and her positive attitude.
- I tend to take the attitude that it's best to leave well alone.
- If you want to pass your exams you'd better change your attitude.
- The political attitudes of young people are rarely taken seriously.
- · There are some major differences between British and American attitudes when it comes to the role of government
- They are accused of taking a cavalier attitude towards their employees' safety.
- Try to develop the kind of attitude of mind that makes you tolerant of other people's failings.
- We all need to show commitment and a can-do attitude.
- · What is your attitude towards the job as a whole?

attitude

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

at ti tude S2 W1 AC /'ætətju d, 'ætɪtju d$ -tu d BrE AmE nour

[Word Family: noun: †attitude; adjective: †attitudinal]

[Date: 1600-1700, Language: French; Origin: Late Latin aptitudo 'fitness', from Latin aptus; ⇒ ↑apt]

- 1. [uncountable and countable] the opinions and feelings that you usually have about something, especially when this is shown in your behaviour:
 - As soon as they found out I was a doctor, their whole attitude changed.

attitude to/towards

- The people have a very positive attitude to life.
- 2. [uncountable] informal a style of dressing, behaving etc that shows you have the confidence to do unusual and exciting things without caring what other people think

with attitude

a coat with attitude

—attitudinal /ˌætəˈtju□�ənəl, ˌætɪˈtju□�ənəl $ -ˈtu□/-adjective

COLLOCATIONS

adjectives

- good/bad a lazy student with a bad attitude
- positive/negative A positive attitude is essential if you want to be successful. | Many teenagers have a very negative attitude towards cooking.
- relaxed On Bali, there is a healthier, more relaxed attitude to life.
- favourable (=having a good opinion of something or someone) Older people tend to have a favourable attitude to the police.
- critical (=showing you disagree with or disapprove of someone or something) People's attitude towards US foreign policy has become increasingly critical.
- ambivalent (=not sure if you approve of something) The public have a rather ambivalent attitude towards science.
- cavalier (=very careless, especially about something serious or important) his cavalier attitude to the truth
- patronizing/condescending (=showing that you think you are more important or intelligent than someone) complaints about patronising attitudes towards women
- aggressive/hostile (=showing anger) Their attitude suddenly became more aggressive.
- public attitudes/people's attitudes Public attitudes have changed.
- political attitudes a survey of people's political attitudes
- mental attitude There is a strong connection between health and mental attitude.
- sb's whole attitude His whole attitude seemed different.
- the general attitude His general attitude to our situation was unsympathetic.

■verbs

- have/take/adopt an attitude Not everyone takes a positive attitude towards modern art.
- sb's attitude changes As you get older, your attitude changes.
- an attitude exists This attitude no longer exists in the church.
- sb's attitude hardens (=they feel less sympathy and they want to be stricter or firmer) People's attitudes towards sex offenders have hardened.

phrases

- an attitude of mind British English (=a way of thinking) Being young is simply an attitude of mind.
- somebody has an attitude problem (=someone is not helpful or pleasant to be with) Some of the male students have a real attitude problem.

THESAURUS

- opinion what you think about something or someone: People didn't usually ask his opinion about anything. | She has rather a low opinion of young people.
- view your opinion about a serious or important issue: She has strong views about education. | In my view, footballers are paid too much.
- point of view your opinion, especially when this is influenced by the situation you are in: From a farmer's point of view, foxes are a nuisance. | It all depends on your point of view.

- position the official opinion of a government, political party, or someone in authority: The Prime Minister has made his position perfectly clear. | The party has changed its position on nuclear weapons.
- attitude your opinions and feelings about something or someone, especially when this shows in your behaviour: My parents and I have very different attitudes to life. I It was his attitude to women that shocked me.
- school of thought an opinion that one group of people have about a subject, especially when this is different from that of another group: There is one school of thought that says that coffee is addictive and is therefore a bad thing. | There are two schools of thought on this.

attitude
12500^{901McW}
15000^{1199cocA}

RANGE: 2k ATTITUDE ³⁷⁴⁶³
attitude ¹⁹⁴³¹
attitudes ¹⁷²⁹²
attitudinal ⁷⁴⁰

COCA 500k Unlemmatized
12884²²¹⁰ ¹⁹⁴¹⁵ nn1
11245252¹¹ nnu

₅376803⁵ jj