```
2) мак-самосейка (Papaver rhoeas)
 2. опий
 3. оранжево-красный, маковый цвет
 4. = poppyhead 2
                                                                                       Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.
poppy
poppy [poppy poppies] BrE ['popi] *
                                         NAmE ['pa□pli"
                                   (pl. poppies)
 a wild or garden plant, with a large delicate flower that is usually red, and small black seeds. Opium is obtained from one type of · poppy fields/seeds
    Word Origin:
    Old English popig, papæg, from a medieval Latin alteration of Latin papaver.
                                                                                                    Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)
poppy
                               AmE *
pop py /'pppi $ -'pα - BrE *
                                         noun (plural poppies) [countable]
  [Language: Old English; Origin: popæg, popig, from Latin papavei
  a plant that has brightly coloured, usually red, flowers and small black seeds
                                                                                                                   Freakuency Pack
poppy
  125009254MCW
  150007959COCA
  RANGE: 8k POPPY 1755
    рорру 1294
    poppies 461
  COCA 500k Unlemmatized
    38426535685 nn1
    <sub>170</sub>29492<sup>573</sup> np1
    <sub>35</sub>128919<sup>36</sup> jj
```

Apresyan (En-Ru)

poppy

['рирі] п 1. бот.

1) мак опийный (Papaver somniferum)