

hazy[ˈheɪzi] a

- 1) туманный, подёрнутый дымкой, неясный
 hazy weather - хмурая /пасмурная/ погода hazy wood - окутанный дымкой лес hazy view - туманные дали; нечёткая видимость hazy vision - неясное зрение
 - 2) смутный, неясный, неопределённый
 hazy idea - смутное представление
2. слегка подвыпивший

hazy

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

hazy [hazy hazier haziest] BrE [ˈheɪzi] ^ˈ NAmE [ˈheɪzi] ^ˈ adjective (haz-i-er , hazi-est)

1. not clear because of ↑haze
 - a hazy afternoon/sky
 - hazy light/sunshine
 - The mountains were hazy in the distance.
 - The room was hazy with smoke.
2. not clear because of a lack of memory, understanding or detail

Syn: ↑vague

- a hazy memory/idea
 - The dividing line is somewhat hazy.
 - What happened next is all very hazy.
3. (of a person) uncertain or confused about sth
 - I'm a little hazy about what to do next.

Derived Word ↑hazilyWord Origin:

early 17th cent. (in nautical use in the sense 'foggy'): of unknown origin.

Example Bank:

- I have only a very hazy idea about how the economy works.
- I'm a bit hazy about my family history.
- I'm still slightly hazy about the details of what happened.
- My memory of that day is a little hazy now.
- The distant mountains looked hazy and mysterious.
- The summers were hazy with pollution.
- There will be a dry start to the day with some hazy sunshine in the east.

hazy

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

hazy /ˈheɪzi/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ adjective

1. air that is hazy is not clear because there is a lot of smoke, dust, or mist in it:
 hazy sunshine
2. an idea, memory etc that is hazy is not clear or exact SYN vague :
 My memories of the holiday are rather hazy.

hazy about

She was a little hazy about the details.

—hazily *adverb—haziness noun [uncountable]

• • •

THESAURUS

- cloudy with a lot of clouds: The weather was cold and cloudy. | cloudy skies
- grey (also gray American English) grey in colour, because there are dark clouds – used especially in written descriptions: Mary looked out at the cold grey sky.
- overcast dark and completely covered with clouds: a chilly overcast day
- leaden literary a leaden sky is grey and full of dark clouds: Snow fell from a leaden sky.
- gloomy dark and cloudy, in a depressing way: The gloomy weather shows no sign of improving.
- foggy with thick low cloud that is difficult to see through. You use foggy especially about low-lying places: a foggy day in London in November
- misty with light low cloud that is difficult to see through. You use misty especially about places that are next to water or in the mountains: a cold misty morning
- hazy with air that looks cloudy, because there is smoke, dust, or mist in it: hazy sunshine

hazy

Freakuency Pack

12500 9440^{MCW}15000 7755^{COCA}RANGE: 7k HAZY ¹²⁷⁰hazy ¹¹⁸⁶

hazier 25
haziest 7 haziness 20
hazily 32

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1067 18974¹¹⁸⁶ jj
