

renown[rɪˈnaʊn] n

слава, известность

of renown - прославленный, известный

a man of great /of high/ renown - знаменитый человек

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

renownre·nown BrE [rɪˈnaʊn] ^m NAmE [rɪˈnaʊn] ^m noun uncountable (formal)

fame and respect because of sth you have done that people admire

- He won renown as a fair judge.
- a pianist of some/international /great renown
- A number of our past students have achieved political renown.

Word Origin:[renown] Middle English: from Anglo-Norman French renoun, from Old French renommer 'make famous', from re- (expressing intensive force) + nomer 'to name', from Latin nominare.Example Bank:

- She was a pianist of some renown.

renown

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

re·nown /rɪˈnaʊn/ BrE ^m AmE ^m noun [uncountable] formal[Date: 1300-1400; Language: Old French; Origin: renom, from renommer 'to make famous', from nomer 'to name']when you are famous and a lot of people admire you for a special skill, achievement, or quality SYN acclaim*international/public etc renown

- ^m He has won world renown for his films.
- ^m He achieved some renown as a football player.

renown

Frekuensi Pack

12500 9868^{MCW}15000 4964^{COCA}RANGE: 7k RENOWN ³¹⁶⁵renown ⁴³⁸renowned ²⁷²⁷

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

³⁶⁹ 34811⁴²⁹ *nn1*¹ 290023⁹ np1